Weddings are often considered a fairy tale of a day, but few are as dreamy as this elegant outdoor soiree. Between the custom designer dress, the bride arriving by rowboat, and a horse drawn carriage, it's hard to pick a more romantic element. But throughout all of the classic wedding design choices are moments of brilliant modern touches. The invitation suite is bold and playful with a watercolor motif and hand lettered envelopes. Rich hues of sanguine reds, deep burgundies, and soft lavenders play in the abundant blossoms. All of the florals were exquisitely arranged and predominate fixtures in every part of this traditional yet playful wedding.
